

41054 DELTA

The Delta reclining sofa collection is soft, comfortable and customizable. Designed to seat the entire family, the collection features power recline and a power headrest, with a fully padded arm, making it easy to achieve your desired comfort. Full chaise bucket seating supports your entire body in the full recline position, while the plush back and fully padded wing surround you in soft support. The recline and power headrest function are activated with a brushed metal, two button switch with integrated USB charging. By positioning the power headrest, it is now possible to view a TV from the full recline position, allowing complete comfort and relaxation. A perfect family room option, the Delta collection can be customized to suit the needs of a high functioning living space.
