

41061 VEGA

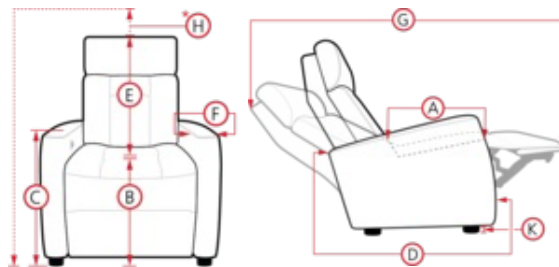

The Vega is a motion collection that was inspired by traditional rolled arm sofas. Adding power operated foot and headrests, the Vega marries classic styling with personalized comfort and functionality. Designed with the entire family in mind, the collection makes it easy to tailor your seating experience for personalized comfort with the ease of a switch. The rolled arm is padded for additional comfort, and the pillowy-soft blown-fiber backs invite you to sink in and relax. The box border full chaise gives the Vega the appearance of a stationary piece in the closed position and extends to support your entire body in the full recline position. The Vega collection is an excellent family-friendly choice for your living space.
